

Am I Stronger Than My Weaknesses?

2 Corinthians 12:1-10

What kind of life
should we expect in Christ?

2 Corinthians 12:1-7

A Life Filled With Highs and Lows

- Paul as an apostle experienced the third heaven, paradise, and heard unspeakable words from God – 2 Cor. 12:1-4
- Instead of exalting himself by the vision, he boasts in his weaknesses – 12:5-6
- Paul was given a “thorn in the flesh” – 12:7
 - A messenger of Satan to “buffet” him
 - Unknown as to its nature, but seems to include persecutions – 11:30-33; 12:10
 - Christians experience “highs” and “lows”...and we can't reject the “lows”!

God Does Not Remove All The “Thorns”

2 Corinthians 12:8-10

The “Thorns” of Life

- Paul asked God to remove his “thorn” – 12:8
- God refused and answered that His grace was sufficient for Paul to serve – 12:9
 - While the world wants grace to remove all weaknesses, true grace gives power to sustain us through times of weakness.
 - When enduring through weakness by God’s power, we follow Christ – 2 Cor. 13:4
 - Paul would, therefore, boast in his weaknesses, because through them God’s power rested upon him – 12:9b

The “Thorns” of Life

- Paul was content to endure his weaknesses, because in them He was strong in Christ – 12:10
 - Paul took pleasure in his weaknesses, seeing that God’s power had pulled him through – Phil. 4:11-13
 - So, as Christians we should by the power of Christ be stronger than our weaknesses!

How are we to deal with inner weaknesses of the flesh and mind?

We All Have Inner Weaknesses

- Paul had them – 1 Cor. 9:27; 2 Cor. 1:8-9
- These weaknesses come in the form of individual susceptibilities to certain sins and attitudes.
 - Susceptibility is not the same as sin, seeing that God is not glorified through my sinful choices and actions.
- Weaknesses of the flesh and mind must be overcome through the power of God!
 - Only by God's grace in the form of power through Christ can we overcome – Heb. 2:17-18; 4:14-16

We Must Be Committed!

- Victory requires:
 - A firm resolve to walk in the way of the spirit – Gal. 5:16
 - That we put away sin and make no provisions for the flesh to fulfill its lust – Rom. 13:12-14
- There is hope for those who sin who seek to walk in the light of God's word – 1 John 1:7, 9
- As Christians living by the power of God in Christ, we can and must be stronger than our weaknesses!

Conclusion

- Remember: “You are of God, little children, and have overcome them, because He who is in you is greater than he who is in the world” (1 Jn. 4:4).
- This will always be true for those who live by faith and seek God’s strength to endure and triumphantly overcome.
- Will you come to Jesus today and overcome in Him today?
